

THE INSTITUTE of
ARBITRATORS & MEDIATORS

AUSTRALIA

Australia's leading ADR organisation since 1975

Membership Information

General Information

The Institute of Arbitrators & Mediators Australia (IAMA) is the nation's largest, independent and most experienced alternative dispute resolution (ADR) organisation. Founded in 1975, membership comprises some of Australia's eminent and experienced ADR professionals drawn from a diverse range of sectors including commercial, legal, education and government. With offices in all states and territories, it also plays a key role in industry and consumer schemes. The IAMA provides services in all forms of ADR including arbitration, mediation, conciliation, adjudication and expert determination, and is involved in the professional development, training and accreditation of ADR across Australia and internationally.

Why join?

You may want to join the Institute for a number of reasons including:

- to further your career and professional prospects, status and opportunities;
- to participate in a multidisciplinary setting, in activities designed to improve and update your practice skills;
- to help you keep up to date with current developments and issues in the field;
- to participate in professional fellowship and make relevant contacts; and
- to create opportunities for referrals to you as a graded arbitrator, accredited mediator and adjudicator or expert in related fields of practice.

How is the Institute administered?

The Board of Directors of the Institute is known as the National Council. Councillors are elected by the Members. The administration of the Institute is managed by a Chief Executive Officer based in our National Office in Melbourne.

A Chapter office has been established in each of the States and Territories. The affairs of the Chapter are conducted by Chapter committees duly elected by the Chapter membership. From this committee, a Chairperson is elected for the Chapter.

Who can join?

There are four main classes of membership:

A Student Member is a student who:

- as at the date of application has attained the age of 21 years;
- holds appropriate professional qualifications; and
- has such knowledge of and interest in the subject of arbitration or mediation sufficient to qualify him/her for admission.

An Associate Member is a person who

- as at the date of application has attained the age of 28 years;
- holds such professional qualifications; and
- has such knowledge of and interest in the subject of arbitration and mediation sufficient to qualify him/her for admission.

A Member is a person who:

- has been approved by Council as a graded arbitrator or accredited mediator or adjudicator.

A Fellow is a person who:

- as at the date of application has attained the age of 38 years; and
- has such wide knowledge and experience of the law and practice of arbitration or mediation, sufficient to qualify him/her to be a Fellow.

We also have provisions for Overseas Associates and Students.

How much does it cost?

There is an initial joining fee of $95.00 (GST inc.) plus your yearly subscription as follows:

Class of Membership	Annual Subscription (incl. GST)
Student	$220.00
Associate	$475.00
Member	$505.00
Fellow	$575.00
Overseas Student	$195.00
Overseas Associate	$295.00

Accreditation, Grading & Re-grading

First application	$135.00
Re-applying	$75.00

Annual subscription to The Arbitrator & Mediator	$130.00
---	----------

The subscription covers the period from January to December each year. Members who join after September each year become paid members for the following subscription year.

How do I join?

Your application requires a proposer and seconder who are current members of the Institute. Your application should be forwarded to the National Office. Your application is then referred to the next meeting of National Council for ratification. A certificate of membership will be issued shortly thereafter.

Education and Training

The Institute conducts national courses for those interested in becoming graded as an arbitrator or accredited as a mediator. See our website for details (www.iama.org.au).

The Institute also has a Continuing Professional Development Program (CPD) that requires members to commit to a training program that keeps their skills current. Regular courses, forums, lectures and seminars are conducted at National and State levels.

The Institute holds a national conference each year which is attended by eminent speakers and internationally recognised authorities.

Professional Indemnity and Public Liability Scheme

Professional Indemnity is not only good business practice but it is a mandatory requirement for practitioners who seek accreditation under the Australian Government's National Mediator Accreditation Standards. Through global insurer, Aon, IAMA has negotiated a competitive Professional Indemnity and Public Liability scheme. Professional Indemnity is available to financial members of IAMA. For only $290 a year, the policy covers legal defence costs, compensation, and legal costs to be paid to the claimant following allegation of professional wrongdoing by you in the course of providing services. Coverage of activities include: Mediation (also includes pre-mediation engagement, communication with the parties setting up the mediation, the actual mediation sessions(s), private sessions and drafting the settlement agreement with the parties), Adjudication, Arbitration, Dispute Resolution, Conflict Management, Facilitation, Community Engagement, Training, Human Resource Management Consultancy, Coaching, Counselling and Business Mentoring. Key features include:

- Up to $10,000,000 cover for any one claim and $30,000,000 in the aggregate¹
- $10,000,000 Public Liability
- Cover for past activities
- $290 per year, including all charges²

¹ To keep the price at the low $290, the master policy caps the total number of claim paid in one year at $30,000,000 and includes $10,000,000 public liability insurance per members.

² The premium includes GST, stamp duty and an administration fee. A tax invoice for the purpose of claim any input tax credits will be issued when your completed proposal form is received.

The Registers of Practising Arbitrators, Mediators and Adjudicators

The Registers of Practising Arbitrators, Mediators and Adjudicators maintained by the Institute identifies those members who are available to act as arbitrators, mediators and adjudicators. It is essential to the function of the Institute as a nominating or appointing authority, that only such persons who, by education, experience and competence should be represented to the public as arbitrators, mediators or adjudicators.

Associate Members who want to apply to be graded as an arbitrator or accredited as a mediator or adjudicator are required to undergo an interview. Policies in relation to this procedure are available on our website.
