Mediating with Families, 2nd Edition

Mediating with Families, 2nd edition offers unique insights into the theory and practice of family mediation in Australia. The text reflects on the many different relationships in families, such as between same-sex, de-facto, married couples, parents and adolescents, siblings and their elderly parents.

This new edition also includes information on conciliation, collaborative practice, family law conferences, the role of lawyers in dispute resolution, and mediation by telephone.

Amendments to the Family Law Act 1975 are also examined.
