

The International Centre for Arbitration, Mediation and Negotiation (CIAMEN) of the University Institute for European Studies of the CEU San Pablo University (Madrid), with the participation of the Civil and Mercantile Court of Arbitration, presents the 2nd International Arbitration Prize, to reward and promote the best scientific papers in this area, in accordance with the following rules.

ONE

SECTIONS, CONDITIONS AND REQUIREMENTS FOR THE PAPERS

Papers entered in the competition will be on any aspect of international arbitration and must contain unpublished academic articles, drafted in Spanish, English, French or German with a maximum length of fifty Din-A4 sized pages. All texts will be presented in Din-A4 format in Times New Roman 12 point font, 1.5 line spacing, justified paragraphs, with footnotes at the bottom of the page, a table of contents and bibliography, printed on both sides. The work will be presented in three copies, with pseudonym, accompanied by an electronic backup in Word format. In a separate envelope, signed with the pseudonym on the front page of the envelope and sealed, a signed original of the work will be delivered together with a file with all personal details and brief curriculum vitae of the contestant. In the case of workgroups, a file with all personal details and curriculum vitae of each of the members of the group who are authors of the work must be presented. Works that do not comply with these requirements will not be accepted.

TWO

CONTESTANTS

Any individual or working group can apply. Each individual or group can present one or more papers to the competition.

THREE

PRIZE

A single prize will be awarded by CIAMEN, financed by the Civil and Mercantile Court of Arbitration of €6,000. When awarding the prize the current law on applicable taxes will be applied.

FOUR

DEADLINE AND PLACE OF PRESENTATION

The deadline for receipt of the papers will expire at 20:00 hours on September 30th, 2010. The Papers will be sent to the Secretary's Office of the International Centre for Arbitration, Mediation and Negotiation (CIAMEN), at the following address:
